TAKES COMPENSATION CASE TO SUPREME COURT Appeal in Case of Milton Anderson Killed at Thamesville Paper Mill.

Notice of appeal to the supreme court has been filed in the superior court from the decision of Dr. J. J. Donohue, compensation commissioner, in the case of the death of Milton Anderson on Feb. 6, 1914 at the mill of the American Strawboard company at Thamesville, when Anderson was caught and crushed to death on a large revolving gear. evolving gear. Upon the hearing before the comvaluation had been piaced on the property left to her.

She testified that Mr. Howe did not manage Mrs. Whipple's affairs, although she admitted that Mr. Howe had sold the Potter street property for Mrs. Whipple to Charles J. Ducy. She said that Mrs Whipple had lived at her house for four months preceding her going to the Lawrence hospital.

The witness knew that a fence separated the house and lot in Jefferson avenue from the adjoining vacant lot, but that she did not know that it was a separate piece of property. She said that tenants of the house had always rented the lot and not as a separate lot. Upon the hearing before the compensation commissioner, he found that the compensation to be paid to the beneficiaries of the deceased would amount to the lump sum of $1,560, of which one-sixth was to go to Allen Anderson of Westerly, two-thirds to Sarah Maria Anderson, and one-sixth to Bertha Agnes Anderson, father, mother and sister respectively of the deceased.

TO MOTORMAN Coroner Brown Completes Investigation in Case of Newton Fox's Death.

Coroner rFanklin H. Brown went to New London Friday morning to view the body of Newton Fox of Mont-ville, who was killed Wednesday night by being run over by a trolley car at Hilltop in the town of Montville near the home of his brother, Medical Ex-aminer Morton E. Fox. The body was at the undertaking rooms in New Lon-don.

State the Great White Plague.

State Director Clearman has made arrangements for over fifty agencies in the western part of Connecticut, while the eastern and central sections will probably be covered by a hundred more. These agencies retain 35 per cent of the proceeds of the seal sale for local anti-tubeculsosis work, which rockes the reliable processions. Coroner Brown absolved Motorman Johnson from any blame for the ac-cident. Fox was standing in the middle of the track, just beyond the crest of a hill and when the motorman first saw him the car which was going about 29 miles an hour, was only 50 feet distant and he was unable to stop Rev. S. C. Thompson, D. D., the well known evangelist, has just returned to the city, having made an extensive trip to Hartford, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., and Richmond, Va. He conducted revival meetings in which many souls were added to the Master's kingdom. it soon enough to prevent striking Fox, the coroner found. There is a curve at this point which throws the searchlight off the tracks for a short distance.

Successful Whist and Entertainment temperance and general misconduct. Saturday, Oct. 22, 1864.— Rev. Jonas King, D. D., the veteran missionary Held by Jacques Cartier Society-Local Teachers at Convention-Other Notes. from Greece, is now in town as a guest of Gen. William Williams.

The Jacques Cartier society gave a very successful whist and entertainment at the Parish hall on Friday evening, for the benefit of the Sacred Heart church. Beautiful prizes were offered to the winners at whist and during the evening music was rendired which added much to the pleasure of the players. Well rendered vocal violin and plane soles were given in a pleasing way by merrbers of the parish.

After the completion of the musical programme and whist, Fred Dugas, a local young man, well known in the dancing and roller skating world gave an exhibition of some of the fancy whirls on skates and some classy steps in dancing. He received much appliance and filled his place on the evening's entertainment in good manner.
